Principal's Message

Dear Seniors,

Could you ever have imagined that these past four years would go by so quickly? I hope that as you leave Pope John that you do so feeling that you have grown in wisdom and grace before God. I further hope that you take with you memories of classes, games, and retreats that you will hold fondly in your hearts.

You have left your imprint on the Pope John Family, helping us to shape the tradition, as have generations of students before you. By your presence, you have enriched our community in more ways than you realize.

Aside from the wonderful academic preparation you have received, I pray that you have learned something about yourself and your relationship to God; something about your responsibility to serve others; to share the light of your life with the larger world.

Wherever you go, whatever you do, know that you always have a home here at 888 Broadway. God Bless You.

Thomas P. Arria, Jr.

It's all fun and games until...

According to some, the four years of high school are the best years in a person's life—there are, however, always those moments we'd rather be somewhere, anywhere else. It's all fun and games until you're trying to find a parking spot at 7:45 or until those three little letters, that every junior dreads, pop up. (SATs anyone?) It's all fun and games until you're confronted by one of Sister Nancy's infamous essay tests or you're being asphyxiated during Mr. C's sulfur lab. Fear not, we all live through it. (Well except for Uter.) So, in your personal game of Life, reward yourself with a Life Tile for the experience, spin the wheel, and push your little plastic car ahead. As you page through this book, you'll remember the challenges fondly...at your twenty year reunion.

But regardless of who sunk the battleship, the fans will be there to watch, led by the fearless Sister Ruth. So, give me a P...

*C*liques, clans, gatherings—call them what you will, but every club has its own pride that goes beyond wearing the sweatshirt. A group of people within school with a common, uniting interest is a valuable thing, rather like finding someone with the same favorite snack as you and having a feast, your own personal Candyland. Whether it's chess, culture, or writing that brings you together, clubs add another level of depth to the high school experience... and they're known to have the best snacks too!

2003-2004

Season

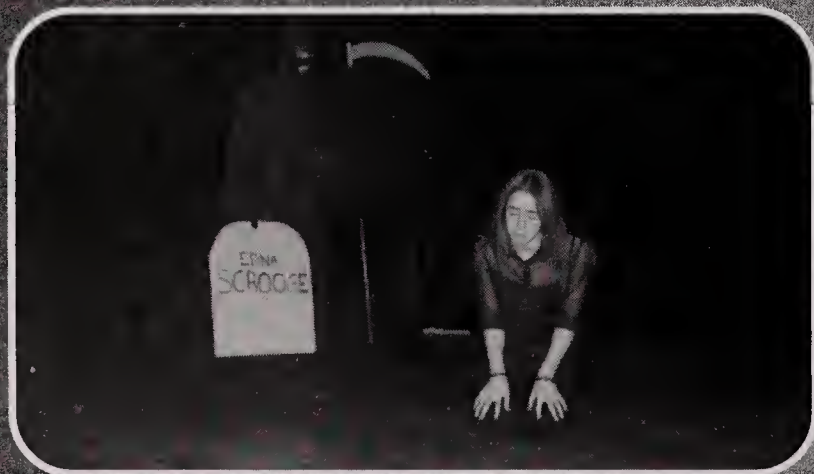

Les Misérables

Undoubtedly one of the Pope John Drama Club's greatest performances ever, Les Mis displayed the actors' and crews' dedication to creating an outstanding musical. Les Mis follows an ex-convict, Jean Valjean, and his path to redemption in the midst of the 18th century's French Revolution. Subplots involved a child pauper, love triangles, corruption, and death. Working with actors from the Milton C. Athol High School, the collaboration proved to be a great success as rave reviews from parents and the many others that attended the house-packed three performances poured in.

Making Nuts & I Know I Saw Gypies

What better way to challenge the Pope John Drama Club than with a couple of One-Act Plays, which is exactly what Director Felli Mae Neil did. Making Nuts centers on a theatre group and the overwhelming pressure cause by their tyrannical director. I Know I Saw Gypies allows the audience to watch the excellent actors portray the powerful tales of everyday teenagers as they face life and trials and tribulations that come. Both plays debuted during October 2003 and were met with success and applause. Never one to rest, Felli Mae Neil is on the next project, the annual Christmas party to give.

Ms. Scrooge

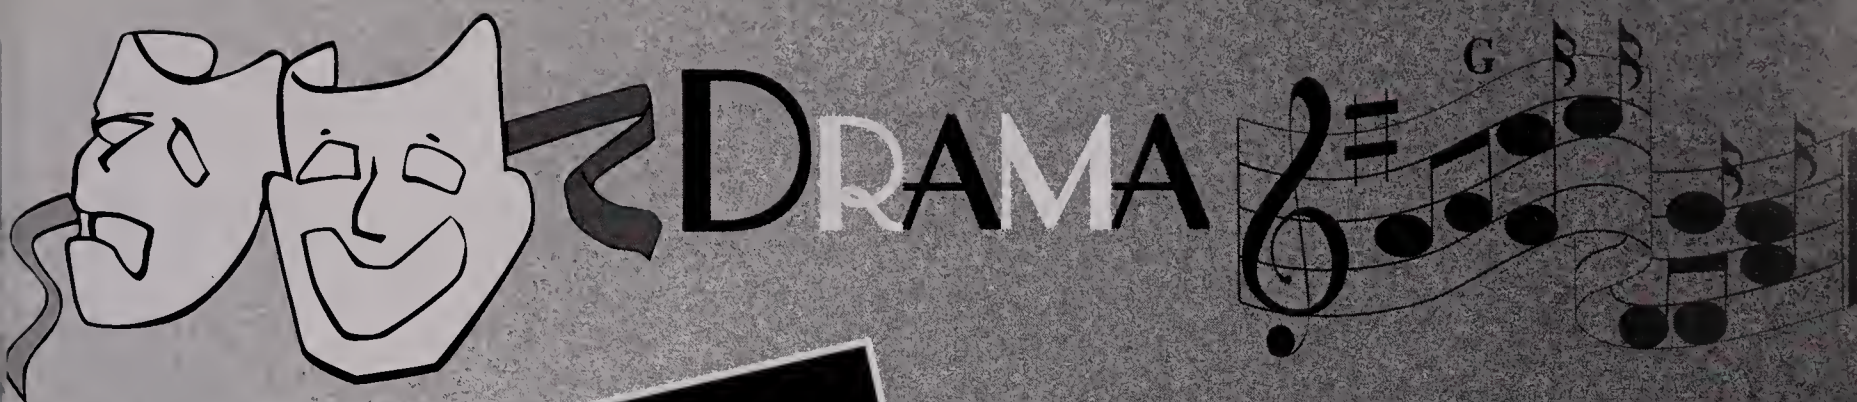

Ananda Legee starred in the all-female adaption of Charles Dickens's A Christmas Carol. The play centered on Edna Scrooge and her demise from a cheerful schoolgirl to an coldhearted, unsympathetic business woman. This show proved to be a great starting point for freshmen and other newcomers to have their first theatrical experience.

5

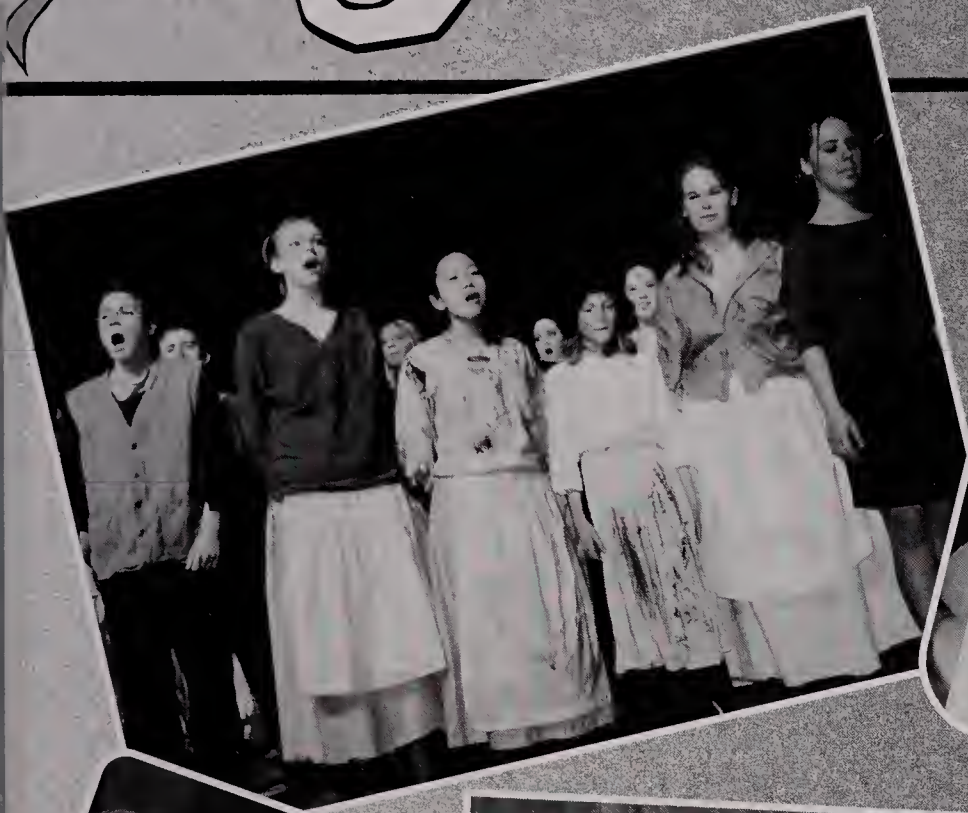

Top Five Things To Do Backstage:

1. Parody the Director.
2. Chow down on illegal food and drinks.
3. Imitate whoever is on stage.
4. Use their lovely voices to sing the Top 40.
5. Learn Britney Spears's latest moves from DJ.

DRAMA

The Pope John Drama Club is known for giving marvelous performances and this year was no exception. Last year's spring musical, "Les Mis", was a huge success and this year's One-Acts, "Ms. Scrooge," and "Once On This Island" carry on the tradition of devoted and enthusiastic shows.

*L*unch table memories are the Fenway Franks of school, extra-curriculars are the seventh inning stretch, and seniors are on their way to post-game interview, but what is the whole point of the game? Does it need to be spelled out for you? It's academics, naturally. Whether going for a triple word score with "onomatopoeia" or struggling with six useless vowels and an x, this is the reason school was invented. No, despite common belief it wasn't established to torture young souls; we're here to learn something. Whether you pull an "A" out of the bag or a less desirable letter, academics are here to stay.

*I*t's difficult to put everything in life into neat little categories, lined up in perfect rows. Prom, fundraisers, prayer services, semi-formal, liturgies, blood drives, food drives, and clothing drives are all pieces of life at Pope John, and every student tries to fit a selection of these into the free slots of time, like checkers in Connect Four. With so much going on all at once, this can become quite a task, but if you can line them all up and get them to fall into place you win!

Class of
Two Thousand Four

Lindsey,
From the moment you were born,
You have brought us nothing but joy!!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Graduation Is a Time

By Claudio Monteverdi

Graduation is a time
For feeling very proud,
For thinking lots of lovely thoughts
And saying them out loud.

It's a time for feeling love
About to overflow,
And just before it leaps its banks,
To let the loved one know.

And so I'm very proud of you For being who you are.
For making something of yourself,
For making it this far.

I'm proud because I am a part Of everything you do.
This time's the time to say how much "Love we have for you"

Love Mom and Dad

Cheers to Lindsey
 He graduates this year
 He surprised us all
 He displayed no fear.
 Now comes the test
 The biggest of all,
 To get up in the morning,
 With out being called!!!
 Love always, Uncle Carl & Lyn

To my sister & Best Friend:
 We wish you love, happiness and success throughout your journey through life...

All Our Love,
 Tony & Kelly

Lindsey, we have known and loved you since you were an infant. You have developed into a beautiful young lady. We wish you the best if everything in the years to come.

Love,
 Auntie Jan & Uncle Don

You have grown from a cute little girl into a beautiful young lady. I am very proud of you wish you every success.
 Remember... Drive slow with that fast car!!

Love you always.
 Papa

May all your wishes and dreams come true and the future bring nothing but happiness to you!

Love Always,
 Auntie Dorothy & Uncle Dan

To our sweet, adorable grand niece whom we love dearly, we wish the very, very best of luck to you...

Oodles of Love,
 Gr. Aunt Ruth and Gr. Uncle Bud

You have grown up so fast from the little girl who was fearful of swimming at Wet N' Wild (and who only wanted one type of Dunkin' Donut!!)
 To a beautiful young lady with hopes and dreams and the ability to achieve anything you put your mind to. We wish you every happiness and success in this world but most of all happiness!

God bless you always...
 Love, Auntie Janet & Susan

To my daughter... Where have seventeen years gone? My adorable little girl is now a beautiful young woman... both inside and out and I'm very proud of you!! May the path you choose bring you only success and much happiness!!
 All my love always, Mom.

To our niece and God-daughter: May you always be happy and successful. We wish you only the best! Love, Auntie Kathy & Uncle Goody.

What happened to the little kid going off to school with that big backpack? She's all grown up now and completed another milestone... graduation. I know you'll do well in the years ahead. I wish you all the best and I'm glad to have been part of your life. Love always, Marty

Bridget,

There is not enough room
On this page to write
All the things that make
You special, you see Because there are many I'll start with the best
Your charming personality
Your laugh that is famous
Is very contagious
Your dancing has taken
You around the world
Yet humble you'd always be
At basketball you fly
Through the air
God has given you wings
So use those wings to Fly to the top
And spread the beauty
That shines from within you

Abrianna,
You are God's special gift. You are beautiful on the outside, but more importantly you are beautiful on the inside. We love you. Reach for the stars and follow your dreams and you will succeed. Always trust in God, and He will guide you. Congratulations!!!
Love you forever and always,

Your Family

Dear Kristina:

My Gift to Yozi

The flow of time has continued on Another year has ended
And even when the poet's gone
Broken melodies can be mended

And what you are to me
Is an angel full of light
Though there are no wings to see Your smile gives me flight

So here's my gift to you Words wrapped in moonlight's glow
In a world that's not so true
Please let your brightness show
